So you're on your own
Think you're all alone
Can't seem to see too clearly
You just won't walk away

Just need to turn around
And make the choice to drown
Surrender all your vices
Lift up your casualties

Seems too tired he's oh so tired
Feels so weary but won't let go
Seems too tired he's oh so tired
Feels so weary but won't let go

We hold on so tight
Won't give up the fight
Life is full of choices
And your choices drag you down

Seems too tired he's oh so tired
Feels so weary but won't let go
Seems too tired he's oh so tired

It's in your heart
It's in your heart
So just let go
And feel the light
You're not alone
You're not alone
His love is strong
His love will hold x2
