Intro

Verse 1

This path is not one I would have chosen
It's the path You've made for me
If my heart stays truly open Your hands can fashion me
Hope's what's holding me up
When the sorrow weighs me down
I'm trusting in this plan that You
Are working good somehow

Prechorus

The absence makes me feel alone
I just want them to come home

Chorus

But they live on
In our memory
The dark clouds gathered round this grave
Can't quench the hope in me
Cause someday
I know that death will be no more
When its swallowed up in victory
New life will be restored

Instrumental

Verse 2

You're not a stranger to pain
I know You've tasted it before
The bleeding from Your wounds
And on Your side the open sore
The Blood and water redeem
They cleanse and make me new
There's resurrection power
In the life that comes from You

Bridge

There's gonna be a raising here someday
It's gonna be amazing here in that day
Our faith will truly become sight
What a glorious day
What a glorious life
